

Swap Next Business Day Service

Secure your workflow and productivity.

When your Toshiba/dynabook product is crucial to the performance of your staff, the last thing you need is long waiting times associated with standard repair processes. Our Swap Next Business Day Service gives you the convenience you need by delivering a replacement device in advance.

Should your dynaEdge product show a defect, all you have to do is report it to our support centre or an authorised service provider and an equivalent replacement device will be delivered to your site on the next business day*, keeping downtime at an absolute minimum.
